

The Tomkins Institute Annual Conference

*The Interpersonal Wilderness:
When Emotion is the Path Out*

Affect and Script in Prejudice, Fraud,
Parenting and—All of Us!

at the University Club of Chicago
4–5 November 2016

The Tomkins Institute
PO Box 667
Lewisburg, PA 17837

www.tomkins.org
info@tomkins.org

The Tomkins Institute Presents . . .

The Interpersonal Wilderness:
When Emotion is the Path Out
Affect and Script in Prejudice, Fraud,
Parenting and—All of Us!

Chicago, Illinois USA
4-5 November 2016

Featured Speakers:

Special Guest: Paul Ekman, PhD, on micro-expressions of affect David Morrison, MD, on how affect shapes ideology and prejudice
Paul Holinger, MD, on affect in parenting and human development
Daven Morrison, MD, on intervening in business fraud
Duncan Lucas, PhD, on insights from Tomkins' biography, and Vernon C. Kelly, Jr, MD, The Michael Franz Basch Memorial Award Lecture:
"Scripts-R-Us".

Plus . . . Reflections on the past and future of the Tomkins Institute;
Affect and beauty at the Chicago Institute of Art;
Lots of discussion and dialogue—and the Annual Membership Dinner Meeting!

The conference will be held at the elegant and historic University Club of Chicago, 76 East Monroe Street, in the heart of the Loop, next to Millennium Park, museums, gardens, and the lakefront (<http://ucco.com>). Chicago is an exciting and beautiful city with far too many things to enjoy, so come early or stay on after the meeting! World-renowned jazz and blues, improvisational comedy, professional sports, parks, museums, architecture, microbreweries and an enormous range of dining options are only the beginning! Visit <http://www.choosechicago.com/things-to-do/>.

Lodging options abound. A block of rooms will be held at the Palmer House until 5 October. A few rooms remain at the University Club; the deadline is 29 September.

The meeting can accommodate only sixty people, so register now at: <http://www.tomkins.org/events/>.

IMPORTANT: Please check the information and schedule posted at the registration link.

1. The conference fee is $350 for members and $400 for non-members (one year membership included).
2. Meals, breaks and Friday membership dinner are included in the conference fee.
3. Continuing Education Credits are available through the American Psychological Association.
4. The University Club of Chicago has a dress code. Men are asked to bring a jacket for dinner. All participants, please check the Tomkins Institute website for more information.
5. The University Club is easily accessed by public transportation.

SEE YOU IN CHICAGO!

